Dear Mr. Newell:-

I am sending the Numismatic Society a few more Dura coins that have arrived here for Mr. Bellinger. Would you please warn the proper people of their arrival? Mr. Bellinger would very much like to have them cleaned after those from last season's dig are finished. They had better be kept separated from the rest as I am not sure of their source. I do hope our avalanche of coins last spring hasn't upset the workings of your organization this winter and that you have been enjoying better health than Mr. Bellinger. He has been ill ever since he reached Rome and is only just beginning to feel all right again.

I hope you are coming up to New Haven for February 22nd again this year and will come in and see us.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss Nettleton:

The package with the Dura coins you mentioned in your letter to Mr. Newell came here several days ago. We have thirty jars going with these coins but the work is slow as it takes two or three months to get anything at all out of the coins, as they are in such terrible shape. Therefore, it will be, as you can surmise, some time before we are finished.

Very truly yours,
